

Changes to the Non-immigrant Application & Appointment Process
Georgetown, Guyana

The U.S. Embassy in Georgetown would like to announce changes to the non-immigrant visa application and appointment process. Starting Friday, March 15, 2013, Computer Services Corporation (CSC), under a contract with the United States Department of State, will be providing some visa applicant services. Applicants will pay their non-immigrant visa application fees at any branch of Bank of Baroda (Guyana) Inc. and schedule their interview appointments through CSC, either online or by telephone.

For complete details on how to apply for a non-immigrant visa to the United States, please visit the new information and appointment website: <http://usvisa-info.com> or call the CSC's call center at (592) 2258732. The U.S. Embassy's non-immigrant visa "How to Apply" web page will have a link to the appointment website. Applicants or their family members in the United States with questions about the new process may call the following U.S. number: (703) 439-2359. The call center can also be reached through Skype using usvisaguyana.

Please note that an online visa application must be completed at <https://ceac.state.gov/genniv/> and the required visa application fees must be paid in Guyana dollars at any Bank of Baroda location before an appointment can be scheduled. Please visit <http://usvisa-info.com> for further instructions.

The current application fees will stay the same. To see a list of current fees for nonimmigrant visas to the United States please go to http://travel.state.gov/visa/temp/types/types_1263.html.
